

Current Events

Source Guidelines

Current is defined as occurring in or belonging to the present time. Therefore, you must follow the time guidelines below when selecting an article to use for your current events assignment.

Your article must come from a reputable news source. All of the sources listed below are acceptable. However, if you find an article from a source not listed below you must ask me first if it is acceptable to use for the assignment.

Most popular sources:

Source Name	Type	Within the last
abcnews.com	Online Television News	1 week
Boston Globe boston.com	Newspaper Online version	1 week cbsnews.com	Online Television News	1 week cnn.com	Online Television News	1 week
foxnews.com	Online Television News	1 week
Kent County Daily Times kentcountytimes.com	Newspaper Online version	1 week
msnbc.com	Online Television News	1 week
National Geographic nationalgeographic.com	Magazine Online version	1 year
Newsweek newsweek.com	Magazine Online version	2 weeks
Providence Journal projo.com	Newspaper Online version	1 week
reuters.com	Online News Service	1 week
Time time.com	Magazine Online version	2 weeks
US News and World Report usnews.com	Magazine Online version	2 weeks
USA Today usatoday.com	Newspaper Online version	1 week

Other acceptable sources include all other major newspapers/news magazines and their online versions~ Examples include but are not limited to:

Los Angeles Times
Chicago Tribune
New York Times

New York Post
San Francisco Chronicle
Washington Post

Forbes Magazine
Associated Press

You may use Google News as a search for articles, but Google News is not the source. Google News is simply a news search engine that gathers links to other newspapers or magazines. Whichever site it directs you to is the source